

"The great problem of having corporate citizens is that they aren't like the rest of us. As Baron Thurlow in England is supposed to have said, "They have no soul to save, and they have no body to incarcerate."" - Robert Monks

Across

- 8 Italian family at the center of one the first documented corporate governance scandals in 1494. (6)
- 9 Instigator of the largest Ponzi scheme in history. (6,6)
- 12 The subject of an Amnesty International report in to the deterioration of human rights as a consequence of their activities in the Niger Delta. (5)
- 15 Irish bank nationalised following the financial crisis. (5,5,4)
- 19 The Smartest Guys in the Room. (5)
- 20 IT company whose former Chairwoman contracted investigators to spy on other board members and journalists in 2005. (7,7)
- 22 Global financial services firm brought down by overinvesting in mortgage debt. (6,8)
- 24 Airline that collapsed after implementing the McKinsey-devised 'Hunter Strategy'. (8)

- 25 Company whose CEO and CFO were accused of the theft of more than US$150 million from the company. (4)
- 26 Company responsible for one of the world's worst environmental industrial disaster in Bhopal, India. (5,7)
- 27 World's second oldest bank brought to its knees by fraudulent investments by one their employees. (7,4)

Down

- 1 One of the largest data breaches in history took place at this company in 2017. (6)
- 2 CEO Michael Woodford exposed fraudulent accounting practices in this Japanese firm after serving as CEO for only two weeks. (7)
- 3 Acronym for an international bank accused of money laundering for figures such as Saddam Hussein, Manuel Noriega, and the Medellin Cartel. (4)
- 4 The company at the centre of the book "Bad Blood: Secrets and Lies in a Silicon Valley Startup". (8)
- 5 Organisation central to a involving collusion with sports marketing executives and officials of continental football bodies. (4)
- 6 Company that agreed to pay US$3bn in fines for unlawfully promoting certain prescription drugs and paying kickbacks to health care professionals, amongst others. (15)
- 7 Italian dairy and food company that collapsed in Europe's largest bankruptcy. (8)
- 10 American car infamous for its fuel tank safety scandal. (4,5)
- 11 CEO of WorldCom and convicted fraudster. (6,6)
- 13 Accounting firm that collapsed after being found guilty of obstructing justice. (6,8)
- 14 Book and film that sought to compare the way corporations are systematically

- compelled to behave with what it claims are the DSM-IV's symptoms of psychopathy. (3,11)
- 16 Former Gig economy CEO who resigned amidst employee sexual harassment investigations, a trade-secrets misappropriation lawsuit and efforts to interfere with government probes. (6,8)
- 17 Main protagonist in 'Dieselgate'. (10)
- 18 Acronym for firm that lost US$4.6bn in first few months of 1998. (4)
- 21 British textile firm that collapsed after the CEO, Asil Nadir, was convicted of stealing the company's money. (5,4)
- 23 Aerospace and defence company in bribery scandal from 1950s to the 1970s while in the process of negotiating the sale of aircraft to Italy, Japan and West Germany. (8)